My dear Mr. Dulles:

I'm 15 yrs. old & someday hope to become (Rep. Party) President of the United States.

It has been many times that I used a similar greeting to other letters (but usually I wrote "My dear Mr.
Secretary:") to your late and very great brother, Mr. John Foster Dulles. I might say that I very much miss those letters now. I used to write him him a lot (and got good answers from his assistants), but there were two times when I was deeply honored. Those times were when

Our Secretary saw fit to send me a personal letter. Both times we'd ^{in answer} ~~in response~~ to Christmas-New Year cards I sent him (with a note, of course).

As you can obviously tell, I am a very great admirer of your brother's.
And I am of the opinion that our Secretary is just as alive spiritually today as he ever was physically.
His works will always live.

I hope to acquire both of his books later & only wish I could have them autographed by you, as his brother, or Mrs. Kelk, as his wife. This would be greatly appreciated if I could send them to you when we purchase them.

I'd like to ask your forgiveness.
Thank you for tolerating this extensive letter. But even in all these words I haven't, adequately expressed even a thirty-second of the great affection
I have for our Great Secretary, Mr.
Whilles!!

Again forgive me.

Your friend in this sad affliction,

DONALD R. JONES.
